BUSINESS CREDIT AGREEMENT

Business-only open-account terms

In consideration of Northwest Custom Apparel ("NWCA") extending business credit, the Applicant agrees to the following:

1. Credit approval. Any payment terms, credit limit, and effective date apply only after NWCA completes the approval section below. Until then, NWCA may require a deposit, prepayment, or payment at completion.
2. Payment. The Applicant will pay each invoice in full by the due date stated in the written approval or on the invoice. Different terms require NWCA's written approval.
3. Credit limit. The Applicant will keep its total unpaid balance within the approved limit. Amounts above that limit may require a deposit, prepayment, or payment of existing invoices before production or release.
4. Past-due account. NWCA may pause production or delivery, suspend or withdraw future credit, and return the account to deposit, prepaid, or COD terms. Existing amounts remain due.
5. Information and invoice questions. The Applicant certifies that this application is accurate, will report material account changes, promptly raise invoice questions, and timely pay all undisputed amounts. A question does not extend a due date unless NWCA agrees in writing.
6. Business-only obligation; no personal guaranty. The Applicant business alone is responsible for account charges. The signer acts only as the Applicant's agent. Signing does not create personal liability for the signer or any owner, officer, member, or employee.
7. Administration and law. Credit approval and future orders remain subject to NWCA's business judgment and standard order terms. NWCA may change future credit terms by written notice without altering existing obligations. Washington law governs, and the parties may sign electronically or in counterparts.

BUSINESS-ONLY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT: By signing below, the signer confirms authority to bind the Applicant business. No individual is signing as a personal guarantor.

Applicant acceptance Complete and sign on behalf of the business.
